

IVRS Responsibilities for Comprehensive Vocational Evaluation Services

- Meet with job candidate to identify evaluation questions to be answered by CRP.
- Attend staffing at which time all questions are addressed.
- Receive/review final report documenting evaluation results from CRP.
- Problem-solve with team to address issues hindering progress as needed.

CRP Responsibilities for Comprehensive Vocational Evaluation Services

- Receives and clarifies questions from IVRS counselor and job candidate.
- Develops plan for most appropriate assessment and timeline which is shared with IVRS and job candidate.
- Identifies what methodology and tools will be needed to answer questions, and identifies vocational options consistent with labor market information and transferable work skills.
- Testing is administered by a Certified Vocational Evaluator or an individual certified to administer the tests selected.
- CRP staff schedule team meeting to share information and communicate assessment results.
- Provides a written report of assessment results to IVRS and contributes to the development of an Individual Plan for Employment.